

JULY 18, 2016 Corvette Cleveland at the RNC

After months of planning between Dan Tuck and Michigan Majority Leader Senator Arlan Meekhof, fourteen Corvette Cleveland Corvettes were at the Alley Cat Oyster Bar putting on a fabulous display of Corvettes. Talk about a once in a lifetime experience! While some members were nervous about attending, due to rumors of possible problems, the event went off without a hitch. Members were treated to free food & drinks (Moscow Mules?!) Corvette Cleveland members did the Ohio State "O-H-I-O" for the Michigan people. Attendees also received a very nicely detailed RNC pin with a Corvette on it. Those who participated were: Tim & Bonnie Adams, Joyce & John Ciach, Mike & Pauline Danzey, Mike & Helene Gates, Fred Kubiak, Brock Landers, Larry & Judy Nemecek, Warren Obert, Big Tom & JoAnn Prusnek, Phil Rine, Ron & Barb Stephens, Dan Tuck, Cal & Ryki Woods and Jim & Sue Youngs.

WAYS TO KNOW YOU ARE IN A CORVETTE CLUB

- Getting up at 6:30 am for work is a chore, but getting up at 5:30 am for an event is no problem.
- Family events are scheduled around Corvette events.
- Purchases are made by referencing how many “sticky” tires you could have bought.
- You drive a freeway ramp like it’s an autocross turn.
- Your “good china” consists of cups & mugs won at events.
- A long company name you see makes you think it would make a good scrambled word on a rally.
- You’re driving some remote road and say “I’ve been through here on a rally before.”
- You drive by a cemetery and think "ALL the people buried in the cemetery are dead.
- A majority of clothing in your closet has a Corvette or club logo on it.
- Approaching a construction zone you do two things, see how close you can come to the pylons and fight the urge to turn in & out through them.
- You’ve “borrowed” a pylon from a construction zone.
- It takes 4 times longer to clean off pylon poop than it did for the entire run when you got it.
- You know what pylon poop is.
- Your house has more Competition Plaques on the walls than family photos.

CORVETTE CLEVELAND IN THE OLMSTED FALLS PARADE

The earliest picture found for Corvette Cleveland's participation in the parade is from 1983! Olmsted Falls parade people had contacted CC member Madelyn Wilson to see if the club wanted to participate. We've been there every year since! In 2002 we used our new large vinyl club emblems on the Vettes. We even won a ribbon in 2003. Driving slowly is hard on the guys with stick shift.

We sure are a crowd favorite. Throwing candy to the crowd is fun, though challenging, one member knocked his garage door opener off the visor while throwing candy, and everyone now knows to save some candy for the end of the parade where the crowds are thickest! If you don't have candy, you sometimes hear "you can afford a Corvette but not candy?"!! HA! One year a Corvette just quit going up that last hill and spectators in the crowd helped push it up the hill. In 2009 the parade was cancelled due to storms and lightning hitting a transformer. In 2013 we had 19 Corvettes! Of course we hear the usual "do a burnout" yells from the younger crowd, but we behave, while still making noise! Ed "Stack" got an apple pie one year by winning a bet by Elaine Obert if he could get the cop guarding the railroad tracks to do "Y-M-C-A". We look forward to continued participation.
